

ANNAPOLIS WATERCOLOR CLUB

October 2017

MONTHLY MEETING – OCTOBER 11, 2017

Maryland Hall - Room 205, 801 Chase Street, Annapolis MD

LINDA LUKE

Linda is internationally recognized as a fine arts professional. Her realistic watercolors and oils reflect the Brandywine tradition that surrounded Linda in her youth. Landscapes are her first love and primary subject matter. However, people, animals, flowers and still life are favored painting subjects as well.

At the meeting, Linda will be showing how she approaches creating atmospheric conditions in paintings. This is a subject she will be teaching this Fall and she will share some of these ideas with us.

Linda has enjoyed a long career as a professional artist and has been commissioned by a variety of professional and private clients such as the Hershey Trust, Hilton, Westinghouse and General Electric to do paintings for them in this country, Europe and Africa. These works hang in public and private collections here and around the world in places such as the Widener Collection, Longwood Gardens and Winterthur.

Please take a moment to check out her Portfolio of Works at <http://lindaluke.com/works>.

Membership News

Welcome to two new members joining in September, Jill Bartos and Cynthia Shumaker.

We will begin collecting dues this month; you may pay at the October meeting or mail them to me at Membership Chair, 2250 Lake Drive, Pasadena MD 21122. I would appreciate it if you would include a registration form, which can be found on the AWC website at www.annapoliswatercolorclub.org/about-awc.html. It is also included in this newsletter.

Please be sure to indicate any changes to your contact information, especially your email address as this is our principal means of communication. Dues are $35 for the year, and will cover the calendar year from January 2018 to December 2018. If you wish to receive a print copy of the newsletter by US mail, add $15.

Liz Grimes, Membership Chair

Treasurer's Report

As of September 19, 2017 AWC has $5,512.80 in its checking account, and $4,999.19 in savings, for a total of $10,511.99.

Sheryl Paris, Treasurer

From the Desk of the Vice President

Joanna Barnum did our September demonstration and I feel that she opened our eyes to possibilities that many of us may not have explored. During her "Simultaneous Realities" presentation, she demonstrated how masking fluid can be used non-traditionally to create the negative shape of positive expressive brushwork. Please note the finished accompanying portrait for an example. She used an approach within a portrait painting that balanced realism and abstract elements. The possibilities for using this method in a variety of perspectives are pretty interesting.

At the September meeting I was privileged to introduce our next President of AWC, Cheryl Duvall. She has shared with me, the members, and the board her excitement in working within the AWC and cited her deep experience with serving in past President positions in other associations, at both the chapter and international levels. She also has had the honor of serving on several local non-profit boards, in a variety of positions or volunteer roles. She understands leadership as well as member/volunteer responsibilities and the joys that result from working with others towards a common goal. I feel she will provide great additional perspective and strong leadership for our Club.

We are still in need of a replacement for me as Vice President. I intend to stay in the club as a support volunteer and we have a great support team who are willing and ready, along with me, to help any new board members understand and perform the jobs that are needed to continue the vibrant characteristics of this club.

Please talk to me or any of the Board Members about volunteer possibilities. It makes us a better club.

Exhibitions

Linthicum Walks

Please plan a trip to this beautiful Anne Arundel County Historic Home and grounds on October 7th-8th. Stop by to see your fellow club members' work located in the Home and stroll around the property to see all the Plein Air painters at work. The Reception will be held from 1:00 to 3:00 pm on Sunday, the 8th. Volunteers to greet visitors and help with the reception are always welcome and appreciated.

Ginger Cove Exhibition

Ginger Cove is a private retirement community, not open to the public. They provide a central gallery that is visited by some 400 of their residents. Ginger Cove does not ask for a commission. Price your paintings accordingly to generate sales. This is always a very popular venue and with the show so close to the holidays, many AWC paintings will become someone's treasured gift.

Please think about participating. The fee is $10.00 for the first painting and $5.00 for your second piece. Remember the total size (including the frame) cannot exceed 30" by 40".

Barbara Burns, Exhibit Chair

Newsletters

Should you have any comments, teaching information or news, please direct the information via email (as an attachment) to Eileen. The due date for news article submission is the 19th of each month.

Members who want to place information about their workshop or lessons will be allowed 2 sentences or a 40 word limit, not including their website. These articles will be included on a space available basis.

Workshop News

We are excited to be welcoming Stacy Lund Levy for our November 4 Workshop which will be held at the Friends Meeting House on Dubois Rd, Annapolis. Stacy demonstrated "Don't be afraid of the darks" at our January General Meeting. Back by popular request, she will be giving a 6- hour workshop entitled,

"Portraits- Character and Form"

We will study the basics of portrait painting, review the underlying structures of the head and neck and how they impact shadows, highlights and form. Color mixing to create a variety of skin tones will be included. You will find full details on our website under "Workshops". The Registration Form is in this Newsletter and will also be at: Annapoliswatercolorclub.org

Artist Bio

Trained in medical & biological illustration at the Johns Hopkins Art as Applied to Medicine program, Stacy worked as a medical illustrator until she decided she would like to depict the subjects of her paintings and sculptures without all the extra information contained in the internal organs and structures. Now she paints flowers, portraits and animals and teaches at Carroll Community College & North Carroll Senior Center.

Publicity

I am still seeking a replacement for the Publicity position for our club. My tenure as the AWC Publicity Chairperson will end on December 31, 2017. A media list for advertising our exhibits and meetings, along with other guidelines for the role is available for the role. Also, we are recruiting for a member to manage the Club's Facebook page. This job is not a huge lift for anyone, but requires maintenance and updating of information of our activities. Please contact me about any questions you may have regarding these openings, Publicity and AWC Facebook Manager.
